

LEADING

PERSPECTIVES

 Series on
Managing Shared Basins

LEADING Perspectives aims to bring together a diverse set of experts to accelerate the thought process on pressing water and environmental issues. This session will take on the challenge of generating an informed, pluralistic and multi-sectoral analysis to propose options for consideration by all concerned stakeholders.

Talk #	Date	Speaker	Topic	Institution
33	14 Feb 2019	Dr. Ivan Zavadsky	Lessons for the Indus Basin from the Danube River experience.	ICPDR
34	28 Feb 2019	James Wescoat	Irrigated Gardens of the Indus River Basin: New Models for Water Resource Management	MIT
35	6 Mar 2019	Shakib Atef	Topic to be determined	GSRO
36	20 Mar 2019	Taimoor Akhtar	Inter-canal water transfers for better groundwater management	Independent Journalist
37	11 Apr 2019	Shahid Iqbal	Topic to be determined	IST
38	25 Apr 2019	John Sabo	Topic to be determined	ASU, US
39	9 May 2019	Tien Truong Hong	How Relevant are the experiences from Meikong River Commission for Kabul river Basin?	Meikong River Commission, Thailand
40	23 May 2019	Ahmad Kamal	Topic to be determined	FFC
41	12 Jun 2019	Vaqar Zakaria	Calculating & Negotiating Environmental Flows for IWT governed Rivers	Hagler Bailly
42	26 Jun 2019	Ghulam Farouq Azam	Afghan- Iran relation on Helmand River Water	University of London
43	24 Jul 2019	Fesial Naqvi	Topic to be determined	Independent Journalist

For in person registration, visit www.lead.org.pk/talks
 You can also participate in the talk online. Visit www.lead.org.pk/webinar

For queries, contact Ms Rabel Haider at rhaider@lead.org.pk | (051) 2651511